

Internal Networking & Self-Promotion — WEBINAR

Audience: Anyone wanting to improve their sphere of influence and increase their mobility within the organization

Size: up to 20 participants

Length: 1 hr

Description:

Do you feel like leaders don't see you and pass over your good ideas and insights? Are you ready to take on more responsibility and challenge but are unclear how to convey that desire? Do you sense that colleagues have more influence across the organization than you are experiencing? Join Karen Bantuveris of Radiance Learning for an interactive webinar where you will learn strategies for building relationships within the organization to advance business goals and move your career forward.

Learning Outcomes – You will learn how to:

- Develop your personal network and increase your visibility within the organization
- Cultivate advocates who can endorse your ideas, programs and insights
- Conduct casual informational interviews
- Identify and overcome your personal barriers to moving your career forward
- 'Toot your own horn' and gain confidence in promoting yourself
